Re: GetAnswers, Inc. ("GA")
Case No. 03-20013-CIV-KING

Dear Kathy:

The purpose of this communication is to summarize our preliminary findings to date, and identify areas requiring further investigation in the subject proceeding.

Based on our preliminary review of transactions included in GA's computerized accounting records, we enclose the following:

Exhibit A	Summary of Cash Activity
Exhibit B	Detail of Cash Activity by category
Exhibit C	List of bank accounts summarized

The Exhibits are based entirely on the accounting information contained in GA's computerized accounting records for the period from January 1, 2001 through January 9, 2003. To provide you with a more meaningful analysis of cash activity, we classified the transactions into broad categories for ease of reference. Accordingly, some of the transactions may need to be categorized differently as additional information is received.

Summary of Cash Activity

We set forth below certain noteworthy comments:

- It appears inflows from investors were slightly over $7 million. Disbursements to related parties were approximately $ 2 million and were funded primarily through investor receipts (Exhibit A).
- Exhibit A includes a category for "Transactions requiring further investigation". We included the detail comprising this on pages 21 through

Kathy Klock, Esq.

January 22, 2003

23 of the enclosed Exhibit B. To assist you further, we highlighted transfers to financial institutions and potential affiliates on this schedule.

- We noted several payments to state authorities, possibly in connection with the operation of the website in several states (Exhibit B- pages 13, 14). Counsel may wish to review local compliance requirements for the website, pending its sale.
- Business expenses include insurance payments, detailed on page 13 of Exhibit B. This may assist you in identifying potential asset purchases eg. payments for marine insurance, implying ownership of a boat/yacht.
- The spreadsheets provided by the SEC include information pertaining to only the HSBC accounts through October 31, 2002. Our analysis includes the activity in the HSBC and Wachovia bank accounts through January 9, 2003, based on the information contained in the Peachtree accounting files.
- The enclosed Exhibit A is a summary only; the transaction detail supporting the summary amounts on this Exhibit is included in the enclosed binder "Detail of Cash Inflows and Outflows".
- Please note our preliminary review is necessarily based on GA's internal accounting records. We have not independently verified the accuracy or validity of this information, or reconciled it with banking records.

Known and Potential affiliates

- The enclosed Exhibit D lists known and potential affiliates identified during our review of documents on January 17, 2003. To the extent cash flows to known affiliates were identified in our analysis, we included them in "Related party cash flows" (Pages 18, 19 and 20 of the enclosed Exhibit B). Cash flows to potential affiliates are included in "Transactions requiring further investigation." (Pages 21 through 23 of the enclosed Exhibit B).

Operating Budget

- It would appear that a primary asset of the Receivership is the operating website. During my meeting with Schmeer and Koenig last week, I requested they submit a tentative operating budget for the website this week. I have not received this at the current date; upon receipt, we will discuss their input with you.

Areas requiring further investigation

- Our investigation is ongoing and we will assist you in refining the information included herein based upon additional review of corporate and financial records.
- Cash activity should be compared to relevant bank activity. Frequently, internal computerized accounting records are incomplete or inaccurate.
- Pursuant to the SEC's request, we will compare the information contained in the Private Placement Memorandum with the internal accounting records.

Please call us if you have any questions or need additional information. I would like to discuss this analysis at your convenience, perhaps next week. Thank you.

Yours sincerely,

GetAnswers' Executives Attend Dinner with President George W. Bush

partners

15-Jul-02

the companyexecutive profilemedia clipsthe plancontact usmenuhome

In the month of April, GetAnswers was honored by an invitation to attend a dinner with the President of the United States of America, Mr. George W. Bush. On June 19th 2002, a select group of GetAnswers' executives (Robert Cournoyer - Chief Operating Officer, James Koenig - President, and Barrington A. Schneer - Sr. Vice-President of Corporate Development) traveled to Washington D.C. to attend a dinner with The President. Vice-President Dick Cheney hosted the dinner and the guest list included several U.S. Senators, Congressional Representatives, top military officials, and a group of accomplished corporate executives.

Robert Cournoyer - COO

James Koenig - CEO

Barrington Schneer - VP Business Development

Lt. Col. Phillip Corcoran M.D.

Prior to the dinner, the GetAnswers' executives met with the Department of Education (via the Secretary of Education Rod Paige's office) to discuss its upcoming plans to expand its "distance learning programs" (i.e. online classes) to include multimedia classes and other various "proprietary" technology courses that would coincide with the President's Education Plan (e.g. "Leave No Child Behind"). Additionally, talks surrounding a "development financing package" for the construction of an academic institution and a multimedia facility in South Florida highlighted the meeting. Over the past several months, GetAnswers has been engaged in active negotiations to "identify a mutually beneficial relationship" with a entertainment company and world-acclaimed executive producer. These talks aimed at forging a unified objective between the federal government, GetAnswers, and its entertainment partner.

During there stay in Washington D.C., GetAnswers' executives spoke with Mrs. Laura Bush's office to discuss the company's education initiative and its planned co-venture into the multimedia and entertainment business. A second round of talks is scheduled for the end of next month back in Washington D.C. to focus on outlining a nation wide academic curriculum as well as incorporating our academic technologies into the First Lady's plans for reforming, expanding, and accelerating the way our children learn in tomorrow's school system. GetAnswers believes many of its newly created educational tools can be a part of the First Lady's plan to enhance our country's educational institutions.

Further, on the day of the President's dinner, the team met with one of its experts, Colonel Phillip Corcoran of the Walter Reed Army Medical Hospital. Dr. Corcoran is a senior official and attending physician at the facility; specializing in cardio-thoracic surgery. The group discussed ways in which GetAnswers' proprietary technology (especially those being developed for multimedia digital imaging) could be applicable to the current administration's interest in "telepresence remote site surgery." Robotic surgery and optical imaging procedures were discussed for the purpose of identifying ways to improve and enhance the current technological methods ... to one of greater multimedia innovation. Following the meeting at the Walter Reed, Colonel Corcoran joined the GetAnswers' team at the President's dinner.

The dinner lasted about four hours and the President made a brief speech regarding our country's future and America's resolve to endure and grow in the face of challenge. Although the President had to make an early departure due to a small single propeller aircraft flying into the "No Fly Zone" over the White House, many of his guests remained to enjoy the rest of the evening.

Overall, the trip was a tremendous success for GetAnswers. As the company looks forward to further developing the relationships it has created in Washington and further expanding its vision to a political level of recognition, GetAnswers believes its pending partnership with the country's executive branch of government and Hollywood's entertainment industry will provide the foundation for consistent and reliable growth over the next few years.

Sincerely,

Annette Berry
Public Relations Coordinator

Market analysts estimate that currently available leading search engines capture approximately 15% of internet traffic and that this information is poorly catalogued. Current search engines retrieve information that is both relevant and irrelevant and do not present it in a precise cohesive manner, thus requiring additional research. In order to gain revenue, conventional search engines are utilizing any site willing to pay for a listing, which results in search engines getting less accurate. It is a common practice for web masters to tag their sites deceptively to get the top position in a query, regardless of relevance.

The knowledge management industry is burgeoning. Leading authorities assess the market to currently be $48 million, exclusive of e-commerce, and to grow this year alone, to over $500 million.

Fact

- As one of the initial first generation search engines to go public, Yahoo! has yielded over a 5000% return.
- As the initial second generation search engine to go public, Ask Jeeves was one of the most successful offerings in history.
